All-Out Effort Being Made for All-Night Party

Honoring the senior class of '53, Torrance high school P-TA will again sponsor the traditional "all night party" following graduation exercises Thursday evening, June 11, according to Mrs. Marjorie W. Moore, publicity chairman.

From 11 p.m. to 5:30 a.m. the halls of El Camino college will sparkle with the variety of a carnival—dancing, games, snack bar, motion picture, contests, prize drawings. Breakfast will be served about 4 o'clock a.m., at which time it is optimistically calculated that the most exuberant senior should be ready to head for home.

Parents, teachers, and enthusiastic citizens of Torrance have combined efforts for the last two years to make these all-night festivities events to be long and happily remembered.

Needless to say, the adults will have to resort to the shift system in order to be on hand to bid the last senior "good day."

Inspired by the spirit of youth, parents, teachers, organizations, and business men are volunteering to donate money, and prizes, furnish transportation for students and equipment, champion one of the "shifts," or help wherever help is needed, Mrs. W. Moore said.

Mrs. W. Shier Installed at P-TA Circus Ceremony

The circus was the theme which Mrs. Lloyd Adams, president of Leland street school Parent-Teacher Association, used in installing the officers for the coming year of the Seventh street school P-TA of San Pedro, it was reported.

Showing that the president's job like the ringmaster is to keep activities organized and running smoothly, Mrs. Adams seated Mrs. William Shier of San Pedro as president of the organization presenting her with the tiny figure of a ringmaster.

As the presentation continued Mrs. Adams took from the colorful miniature Big Top the animal having the traits needed to fulfill that office and presented it to the officers as she installed, Mrs. Richard Moretti as first vice president, Mrs. Millard Broughton as second vice president, Mrs. Sam Frelkin was installed as secretary, Mrs. Al Fierman as treasurer, Mrs. Clifford Harvey as auditor, Mrs. Jack Osherenko as historian, and Mrs. Raymond Scott as parliamentarian.

Among the special guests introduced were Mrs. William D. Russell, president-elect of Lomita-San Pedro Council P-TA. The incoming president, Mrs. Shier, held her first chairmanship in P-TA when Mrs. Russell was president of Leland street school P-TA. Also introduced was Mrs. M. L. J. Hanson, president-elect of Mary Starr of the Sea P-TA San Pedro.

Nurses Wanted By Red Cross

One hundred and twenty-five registered nurses are doing volunteer work in the Red Cross Blood Program here, the organization reported this week. Red Cross urges registered nurses who are interested in doing volunteer work to call DUnkirk 4-5261 for more information.
